In today’s fast-paced world, artificial intelligence plays a crucial role in modern education.
It is important to note that AI tools have transformed the way students write.
In my opinion, I think this is a very important development for learners.
Some students may make a research without proper thinking about the topic.
We should discuss about how to use it correctly in academic writing.